

Scene Around Town

The Pioneer Engine Company hosted this year's Ulster County Volunteer Fireman's Association Convention July 24th-26th and was the first contingent in their huge parade Saturday, above. Members of the 4th of July Committee, below, in a 2002 photo, tallied another successful parade, street fair, and fireworks display.

B&H Garage's spiffy new sign was crafted by Roger Baker, who is perhaps best known for his Elvis, Statue of Liberty, and most recently, Einstein "grass sculptures," mowed into a field between Routes 209 & 52, as well as his Harvest Festival T-shirt designs.

What says summer in the country like an evening of music in the village square? The fourth year of the Chamber's Music in the Square featured four rousing presentations, including The Hudson Valley Brass Quintet, above, on July 12th and The Swing Shift Orchestra, on July 19th, which gave Joe & Blossom Rozman and others, below, a chance to dance to the oldies.
