

Rev. Anthony Puduchery of St. Mary's & St. Andrew's Church, Ellenville, above at lectern, flanked by area law enforcement, fire, and first aid & rescue personnel, gives the Invocation at the Ellenville/Wawarsing 9/11/01 Memorial Services held in Liberty Square on the evening of the 2nd Anniversary of that event.

Police Chief Philip Matracion, above right, presented a new flag to Ellenville Mayor Jeffrey Kaplan, who then spoke, as did Supervisor Craft, Rabbi Frank, Dennis Warner, and others. Fourth Graders and their teachers read a poem; Denise Younger sang; the event ended with candle-lighting by all, and Taps played by Richard Constant.

Jon Slegona of Ellenville, right, brought home a Bronze Medal by placing third in the Empire State Games in Buffalo on July 24th, throwing the hammer 151 feet. For Jon's first year throwing the hammer, it's a job well done. Check out Ellenville's football schedule; he'll be on the field, and then it's on to wrestling. Said Jon's mother, Lisa, in passing the news on to us, "I just thought the community would like to hear something good about another one of the great students of Ellenville High School."

Above Left: Chair of the Sullivan Legislature Leni Binder, center, was honored Sept. 7th at the Resnick Auditorium at Ezrath Israel by the Ellenville/Sullivan United Jewish Appeal in support of the Israel Emergency Fund. With Leni are Sherry Solomon and Henry Solomon, president of the synagogue. The concert brunch included musical performances by violist Anastasia Solberg and pianist Olga Greenhut, playing 20th century compositions.

Above: Mort and Rita Horowitz, center, were honored at the Ezrath Israel Annual Dinner Dance on Sept. 21st. With them were, left, Vicki Caston, chairperson of the event, and, right, her mother, Blossom Rozman, who was master of ceremonies.

Below: The Kerhonkson Synagogue Jewish Seniors group holds informal luncheons twice monthly at the Napanoch Senior Citizens' Center; this meeting was held Sept. 16th.
