

Scene Around Town

A special Valentine's Day version of the weekday Senior Nutrition Dining Program was held Feb. 13th at the Trudy Resnick Farber Center in Ellenville. Local seniors 60 years and older can partake of the Monday-through-Friday, 11:30 AM luncheon fare for a suggested cost of $2.00, free if one can't afford it. Meals are provided by Prestige Services Inc of Kingston, and funded by the Ulster County Office for the Aging. Approximately six dozen seniors are served lunch each day, about 45 through the Meals On Wheels program for those unable to get to the Center; daily menus for the upcoming months are available. Visible through the service window, above, are Site Manager Jean Newton, left, and Clara Eckerson, helping out. Morning Healthy Heart exercise programs are held downstairs and afternoon DVDs/Videos are coming. Caseworker Kathleen Kiernan is available on Wednesdays. Stop by or call 647-1605 for info. Volunteer drivers are also being sought; call 336-7112 if interested.
