There's No Business Banking Service More Fitting Than Hours.

YES... maintaining a full staff on Saturday and even on Sunday* means greater convenience, but it also means greater accessibility to your business accounts and faster approvals on loans.

Provident Bank has a strong selection of small business loans and lines of credit with easy applications, limited documentation and local decision-making. Plus, of course, the unmatched experience and personal service of our Small Business Professionals.

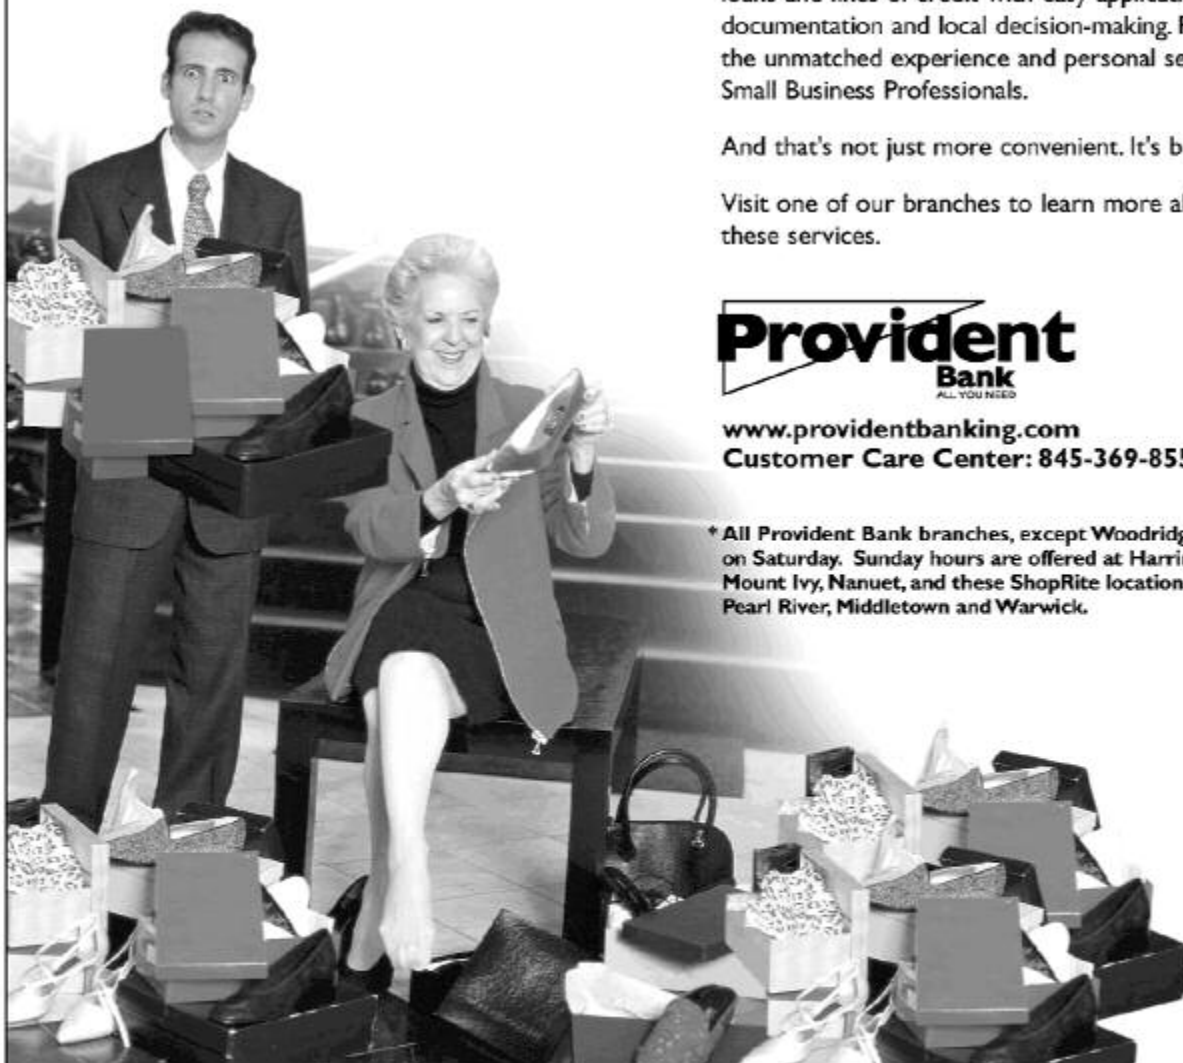

And that's not just more convenient. It's better business.

Visit one of our branches to learn more about these services.
