

well-respected and successful financial institutions, with assets far beyond our comprehension. The changing character of our local banks is only one facet of the many changes required to be part of the new global economy.

Ellenville has already received an expression of community support in Provident's donation of funds to purchase and then to install the community clock at the Village Park at Canal & Main Streets.

We welcome Provident to Ellenville and anticipate many years of mutually beneficial relationships with them, M&T, and Bank of America. They are our new community banks. They are the new face of Ellenville banking for the twenty-first century.
