Garden Club Cook Book on Sale

Linda Zuckrow, cookbook chairman, has just announced that the members of the Shawangunk Garden Club will be selling a cookbook at the Blueberry Festival on August 28th.

The cookbook is filled with recipes that are the favorites of the Garden Club members and, according to Club President Dale Craft, "our Garden Clubbers are some of the best cooks in the area." Also available at the festival will be baked goods and other wonderful surprises to take home.

All of the proceeds for the cookbook will be used to help fund the dogwood project that the club undertook three years ago. Eight hundred Kousa Dogwood trees have been given away to the community for planting, along with a large tree at Lipton Park and a tree at the intersection of Main & Market in Ellenville (see July issue, page 29).

The cookbook, priced at $10, will be a great addition to everyone's kitchen.

Kerhonkson Lions Club News

by John C. Motzer Sr., Secretary, Lions Club

A new slate of Kerhonkson Lions Club officers has been sworn in for the 2004-2005 year.

At the annual installation dinner, June 24th, District 20-0 Region Chair Hilde Misner installed the following officers:

President Margret Carroll, Vice President Dr. Bipin J. Bhavsar, Secretary John C. Motzer Sr., and Treasurer A. Richard Terwilliger; Directors Edmon Lamon, Carlton Schoonmaker, John C. Macauley, Daniel Gelles; Sight and Hearing Director Arnold Gottesman.

Two new members were also inducted into the organization: Russel Oliver and Richard Mullen

The recipient of the Kerhonkson Lions Club scholarship for Rondout Valley High School was announced. Christina Bracklow of Maple Lane, Kerhonkson, was awarded $250 towards her college fund.

The Kerhonkson Lions are continuing to assist those in need with Sight and Hearing problems. For those outside the school system, please contact Lion Gottesman for assistance.

The Lions of Kerhonkson have been serving the Kerhonkson-Accord areas since 1947. Recently we have absorbed the members of the Ellenville Club and will be extending our service area.

The Kerhonkson Rail Trail is continuing to grow. Thanks to donations from the Ellenville-Wawarsing Chamber of Commerce, the Lions Club, D&H Corridor Alliance, and others, we will be able to complete the railings on the new bridge and place gates, where needed.

The Town of Wawarsing and the NYS DoT have provided labor and equipment to get the trail open to Rte. 44/55. Volunteers are lining up to help with the clearing and construction. This has become a great community project. Thanks to all who have brought this project together.
