

Mother Blueberry says "Thank You"!

To all of you who contributed thoughts, time, and encouragement, and to those of you who participated in any way during this yearlong journey to Blueberry Festival 2004, a heartfelt "Thank you." It has been an exhausting, exhilarating, awesome experience for me, but all of my efforts would be for naught without each and every one of you. See you next year at an even greater Blueberry Festival 2005.

Dianne E. Turner
Festival Coordinator, "Mother Blueberry"

On a beautiful, hot, mostly-sunny day in Ellenville, many hundreds of visitors enjoyed the variety of the Blueberry Festival, top photo.

The August 28th festivities included dozens of vendors (food, crafts, merchandise), many community groups, plus purveyors of health information, and musicians, artists (including the new Art at the Festival held in the Hunt Memorial Bldg., above photo), also special events, including the Best Blueberry Pie Contest (this year's first place won by Jennifer Schoonmaker, left, of Saunderskill Farms, Accord).

A threatened possible rain held off until about 4 PM, which, other than curtailing the final musical performance, wasn't heavy or long enough to get the canopied exhibitors to begin packing-up early.
