Public Hearing on Ulster County's Economic Future

On October 5th, the Ulster County Development Corporation will host a one-day public hearing on the economic future of Ulster County. The purpose of this hearing is to gather information on the essentials for and impediments to business attraction and economic growth in Ulster County. Special attention will be given to identify community development priorities, and formulate programs to assist in strengthening our county's economy.

This hearing will be held from 8:30 AM to 5:30 PM at Ulster County Community College. Seating is limited. For reservations, contact Linda Clark at 338-8840 ext.10.

For additional information on how UDC programs are working with Ulster County's communities and businesses go on line to www.ulsterny.com. UDC may also be contacted at 338-8840 or develop@ulsterny.com.

Antiques Appraisal Day

The Ulster County Historical Society is sponsoring its second annual Antiques Appraisal Day and silent auction on Saturday, November 13th, from 12 Noon until 4 PM, at Bever House Museum, 2682 Rte. 209, Marletown.

Appraisals will be done by experts that have donated their time for the benefit of the Museum: Sanford Levy and Charles Glasner of Jenkinstown Antiques, New Paltz, and antique jewelry dealer Jean Papin.

Admission is free. There is a $5 appraisal fee per item. Cider, hors d'oeuvres, cake and coffee will be served throughout the afternoon. Donations for the silent auction are still welcome and are tax-deductible. If you would like to contribute an item or service please call 338-5614.
