In 1980, Dr. DePuy moved from Albany, NY, to Great Falls, Virginia, to direct the College and University Division of a national management consulting firm headquartered in Washington, DC. He founded a religious elementary school during 1997 in Potomac, Maryland. Today, he is working full-time to help a large church raise sufficient funds to build a $17 million facility expansion. For the past 15 years, his organization "Stretch Management" has completed over 260 projects for leaders of universities, foundations, corporations, associations and churches and the federal government.

Dr. DePuy and his wife Marianne have three grown children. Guy is with Pepsi Cola, Craig is a Boy Scout executive, and daughter Allyson is the CEO of the Colorworks Hair Salon Chain. Craig and Mary have sons Luis (8) and John (6). Marianne, a native of Pennsylvania, works for the First American Real Estate Solutions Corp.

Not unexpectedly, Dr. DePuy is active in his current community. An elder of Fourth Presbyterian Church and the immediate past chairman of a non-profit adoption agency, he was chairman of the National Christian Choir Foundation Board. While in New York, he served on the boards of the Saratoga Performing Arts Center, the Silver Bay Association, the State Bank of Albany, the Sir William Johnson Boy Scout Council, the American Red Cross (Utica Chapter) and the Chamber of Commerce in Fulton County (NY) and Amsterdam, (NY).

Dr. DePuy has had the pleasure of being the speaker on three occasions at Ellenville High School commencements.

Wawarsing.Net is proud and pleased that a man of such accomplishment still thinks fondly of the community of his youth and we look forward to his contributions to our magazine. Welcome aboard, Dr. DePuy! ✨
