

Scene Around Town

Ellenville was the host municipality as the New York Conference of Mayors (NYCOM) held a multi-day series of events, workshops, and exhibits at the Nevele Hotel (above) from September 21st onwards. Ellenville officials took advantage of the easy commute to learn or refresh relevant municipal-related knowledge and skills.

Chairperson Marion Dumond welcomes community members to an open house (above) at the Hunt Memorial Building on October 2nd. In addition to sampling seasonal refreshments and displayed artworks, guests heard local officials and HMPC board members speak with optimism about the building's revival and importance to Ellenville's downtown future. (See page 7)

Brendan Burke of Shadowland Theatre, and Jamie & Marcus Guiliano of Aroma Thyme Bistro celebrate their "Best of the Hudson Valley" status in New Windsor (right) on October 7th. The Hudson Valley Magazine's awards cover 10 counties, from Albany to Westchester, and Ellenville had four winners: Shadowland (Best Theatre), Aroma Thyme (Best New Restaurant), Top Shelf Jewelry (Best Jewelry Store), and Roger Baker (Best Artist).

Woodrow Jones (bottom right), an EHS student, assists during the hayride, the new addition to the Noonday Club Halloween Festival program. PAL Coordinator Paul Craft drove the haywagon around the back of the school, to the delight of the children and their parents. Held on Sunday, October 24th, the annual Festival included games and prizes for pre-school to 4th grade students. Noonday Club members supervised the games and the distribution of prizes.

African American
Men's Association of Ellenville, N.Y.

One Bogardus Place
Ellenville, N.Y. 12428
(845) 647-2262, Fax (845) 647-2262

Rent our Beautiful Hall for all occasions

As part of Curves's 2nd anniversary party in Ellenville October 13th, owner Kathleen Strong, far right, handed out Elite Member shirts to Sally Bradley of Napanoch, left, and Blossom Rozman of Ellenville, right, and a one-year shirt to Martine Kreiger of Cragmoor, center.

Retired and current Ellenville Teachers and School Related Professionals Association members participated in the Making Strides Against Breast Cancer Walk, held on October 17th, at Woodbury Commons (below). The Walk raised funds to strengthen lifesaving American Cancer Society research, education, advocacy, and patient service program to defeat breast cancer.

