

Garden Club Elects Fogarty

At the annual meeting of the Shawangunk Garden Club, Sylvia Fogarty was elected to serve as president for 2005-2006. Linda Zuckrow was elected vice president and Karen Thornton treasurer. Fran Wolfe continued as recording secretary and Patty Foster continued as corresponding secretary. Pam Decker and Helene Morris were added to the Program Committee.

The club, which has grown to 73 members, is busy preparing for the holidays.

They are decorating the Terwilliger House Museum for the holidays and are inviting the public to join them at the Museum on December 4th from 1:00 to 3:00 PM for tea and cookies. Linda Murdock, Jane Healy, Joyce Kalish and Fran Wolfe are chairing the event. The theme is "Winter Wedding." They are also making centerpieces for the Noonday Senior Citizens Dinner on December 5th at the school.

Dale Craft, who is stepping down after serving as president for five years, reminds all members that the final meeting of the year will be a Holiday Party at the home of Maggi Heath.

After many months of absence, the Fantinekill Massacre Monument was returned to its perch overlooking the north edge of the Village, having been laboriously scrubbed and polished to remove years of staining and corrosion. Featured writer Marion Dumond had planned to focus her December column on the history of the monument and the events that inspired it, but, due to an accident, was unable to. We wish Ms. Dumond a speedy recovery and look forward to the complete story as soon as she is able to compile the material and access her PC.
