

Wawarsing 2006

The Town of Wawarsing Bicentennial Committee is beginning to schedule events for the 2006 celebration. There are already many dates filled with festivities. The committee is diligently working to include each hamlet in the Town of Wawarsing in this 200-day event celebrating 200 years. Any organization wishing to host an event during the Bicentennial please contact committee chairman Dr. Mark Craft at 647-5430.

Ellenville's Bicentennial Committee has met twice already to begin planning for the Ellenville Day portion of the celebration. The focus is on a full-day of events scheduled for the Sunday the day after the Blueberry Festival of 2006, and the same weekend the All-Years Reunion of Ellenville High School will be occurring.

Among some of the discussed items: re-staging the play about Ellenville history last performed at the Ellenville Sesquicentennial in 1955 (if you were IN that play, or have a copy of the script, please contact Ann Bowler at Village Hall); a time capsule and guestbook (and a video guestbook); several historic village walks, including Maple Ave., the Canal area, downtown; a celebration of the Hunt Building, with former occupants, and musical performances on the porch; panels and get-togethers with past mayors, trustees, police chiefs, etc.; special artwork on display and unveiled; open houses at the community houses of worship.

If you are interested in participating in any of these events, or have further suggestions, please attend the next meeting, Tuesday, January 18th, 5:00 PM at Mayor Jeff Kaplan's Ellenville law office on Main St., near McDonalds (most meetings to be the third Tuesday of the month) or call committee chair Kaplan at 647-4110. ☞
