

Wawarsing 2006

Plans are being finalized for the Town of Wawarsing's Bicentennial Celebration scheduled for 2006. Community groups are coming forward with events to be placed on the bicentennial calendar.

The latest community to commit is Cragmoor. A joint celebration hosted by all the organizations of Cragmoor will take place on June 24, 2006. Cragmoor Day will include house and bus tours, Stone Church open house, slide shows, various foods, as well as book and bake sales. The festivities for the day-long celebration have not been completely finalized and ideas for this celebration are still developing.

The Village of Ellenville has chosen August 27, 2006 as Ellenville Day to be part of the Bicentennial Celebration. This event will be the day after the Blueberry Festival and the Ellenville Alumni Association's All-Years Reunion to be held at the Ellenville Central School.

Ellenville Day will honor all former village officials and police officers. Guided walking tours of the village, the showing of Ellenville on Parade in the Hunt Memorial Building as well as concerts are just several of the events planned for Ellenville Day. A souvenir fundraiser of the "Boy with the Boot" is being planned.

It is not too late for your community or organization to schedule and reserve an event date for the Bicentennial.

Volunteers will be needed for this six-month long celebration, and it is not too soon to sign up to help. If interested, contact Dr. Mark Craft, the Bicentennial Committee chairman at 647-5430.
