

while others are camp followers, Native-Americans or just typical interested citizenry. Through personal research each individual makes every attempt to accurately represent his/her persona before the public. Dedicated unit members commit considerable time and financial resources to this endeavor. If you would like to learn more about unit membership, please contact, Walter Bennett (Email: bennwe@warwick.net).

Educational Programs & Special Events

We offer tailored presentations ranging from the single presenter to a full encampment. Eighteenth century topics may include military life, Colonial/Native-American survival skills, domestic and children's life, and more. Contact Program Coordinator Cindy Scherry at 657-2975 to discuss availability and appearance fees.
