AMENDED RETURNS

Q. I filed my 2003 tax return on time. I forgot, however, to include income from a part-time job. What do I do now?

A. You need to amend your 2003 return by filing Form 1040X. You may owe a little more tax, or you may get a small refund, depending on how much you earned and how much tax was withheld.

An amended return can be filed for a variety of reasons. For example, if you remember a deductible expense after your return has been filed, you can amend a return to correct the error and receive a net refund. Generally, you have three years from the due date of your return to file an amendment. If you filed a state return, you may have to amend it too.
