

Scene Around Town

Summer school teacher Jen Bonitz (right, top center) embraced the idea of teaching with technology this summer at Ellenville Elementary School and did not let the fact that her students were barely big enough to reach the keyboard deter her at all. Mrs. Bonitz and her students are seen here using the computer lab and the Internet to familiarize themselves with letter shapes and sounds. Additionally, the students are getting used to the use of the mouse and keyboard readying themselves for the school year and the future. (Photo/caption by Jack Etter, Ellenville teacher)

No, it's not a movie from the 60s playing at the Shadowland! The long-married Benjamins returned to live theatre, playing a couple (along with son Ross, who plays their son) in Arthur Miller's "All My Sons," for a multi-week engagement in Ellenville's award-winning regional theater (photo, above). There's still one week left to catch this unique theatrical experience! Go to shadowlandtheatre.org or call 647-5511 for times and ticket info.

Paramedic Nelson Machado stands by the new Ellenville First Aid & Rescue Squad SUV, fitted out with the latest and most critical medical gear for first responders. Now, a higher level of medical aid can be administered right at the scene of an emergency.
