During the latter part of 2001 and early 2002, the Ellenville-Wawarsing Chamber of Commerce Board of Directors started to discuss the idea of a "Good News" newspaper, one that would tell all the positive things going in the Town of Wawarsing and put our best foot forward.

Our neighbors to the south, the Wurtsboro Board of Trade, had such a publication and it was that publication that we sought to emulate.

December 2002 saw the very first issue of Wawarsing.Net and the rest, as they say, is history.

For the past 34 months, Steve Krulick and Kryolux have handled all the myriad details that turn concept into reality. His professionalism and dedication have helped to bring Wawarsing.Net to where it is today and for that we are grateful.

But time marches on and Steve has advised us that this issue will be the last that he will produce for the Chamber. We are sad to see him go but at the same time we appreciate his commitment and perseverance for the past 34 months.

We wish Steve good luck in his future endeavors and wish to assure you, our loyal readers, advertisers and contributors that the Board of Directors is committed to continuing publication of Wawarsing.Net. We ask for your patience and understanding in the coming months.

The October issue of Wawarsing.Net will be available, as always, on the 1st of the month and at the same locations.
